Mother's Day Novena

Mother's Day is Sunday, May 8, 2016. The best gift of love that one can give is to offer a Mass for our mothers, both living and deceased. Mother's Day Novena cards are available at the back of the church or in the parish office. Please place the donation envelope in the collection basket or bring your donation to the parish office. Please be sure to write down the name of your mothers so that she can be remembered in prayer.

RCIA (The Rite of Christian Initiation)

The Way to Become Catholic

Do you or someone you know fall into one of the following situations? Never been baptized, baptized in another Christian faith, baptized Catholic but have not received your First Communion or Confirmation. If so, then RCIA is the place where you can ask questions about Catholicism and learn how to become Catholic. For more information, or to find out about our inquiry sessions please see the email address on the front of this bulletin.

The Peace of Christ

Our offering of the Peace of Christ to one another is familiar enough. Hands reach out and are clasped with relative ease. In a place where fellowship and faith are assumed, offering greetings of peace is appropriate. The greetings are easily and respectfully given whenever peaceful people regard one another with unconditional acceptance. Peaceful greetings can grow into relationships of friendship and affection, or they can simply remain signs of good will and mutual respect. In our offering peace we acknowledge that together we are rooted in God's salvation and peace in our common gift

Our Lady of Guadalupe Special Mass for Cancer Patients, Survivors, Caregivers, Friends, and Families

You are invited to attend a Healing Mass in honor of St. Peregrine Feast Day, May 4, 2016 at 7PM at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. St. Peregrine was ordained a Servite Priest. He was widely known for his preaching, penances, and counsel. He was cured of cancer, after he received a vision of Christ on the cross reaching out His hand to touch his impaired limb. He died in 1345 and was canonized in 1726. St. Peregrine is the patron of cancer patients. Let us all join our prayers together on this feast day and pray for all who are going through treatment, those who have survived and those who have succumbed to cancer. Tell your friends, relatives, neighbors or anyone you think might benefit from this Mass. For more information, please call the Parish office at (310) 372-7077xt 221.

Volunteers Needed for Post Office Food Drive

We are one of the few recipients of the Post Office Food Drive, which will be held on Saturday, May 14th. You can contribute by leaving non-perishable food in non-breakable containers by your mailbox for your mail carrier to pick up. We will also need people on Saturday, May 14th from approximately 2PM-6PM to collect the food from the post office and deliver it to the parish. Service hours are available. If you are interested, please call Eileen O'Brien at (310) 316-0543 for more information.

LA SEÑAL DEL CRISTIANO: UN AMOR QUE LIBERA, QUE REDIME.

La señal por la que conocerán todos que son discípulos míos será que se aman como yo los he amado. El amor, sin más, no es la señal del cristiano: hay amor de amigos, amor de padres, amor sexual, amor de compasión, amor político, amor animal, amor humano, etc.

Las personas pueden amarse sin ser cristianos, pero con los cristianos, el amor que debe manifestarse es el De Cristo, hasta dar la vida por nosotros. Y es así como recibimos la vida eterna, la salvación, porque El nos amó hasta el extremo. Hay muchos hombres y mujeres que trabajan por el bien del prójimo, pero no lo hacen como cristianos, y no es que este mal, para nada, eso está bien, solo que la referencia no es el Cristo que murió y resucitó en la Cruz.

Diciéndoles que hay que pasar mucho para entrar en el Reino de Dios. Pablo y Bernabé fueron dos maravillosos predicadores del evangelio de Jesús; los dos tuvieron que sufrir muchísimo para llevar a cabo la misión que el Señor les había encomendado. Ahora, en este texto, les dicen ellos a los otros discípulos que no se desanimen ante las dificultades que tienen para llevar a cabo su misión evangelizadora. La cruz acompañó a Cristo en su camino hacia el Padre; la cruz seguirá siempre acompañando a los auténticos discípulos de Cristo. El que quiera seguir a Cristo que tome su cruz y le siga, pero que la lleven siempre con amor y por amor, como el mismo Cristo la llevó. Los cristianos tenemos que ponernos al servicio de Dios, al estilo de Cristo, para que Dios por medio de nosotros siga manifestando su amor al mundo. Sabemos que para realizar bien nuestra misión tendremos que sufrir mucho, pero sabemos también que, si aceptamos este sufrimiento con amor cristiano, Dios puede hacer cosas grandes por medio de nosotros.

Yo, Juan, vi un cielo nuevo y una tierra nueva... Y escuché una voz potente que decía desde el trono: esta es la morada de Dios con los hombres, acampará entre ellos. Hacia este cielo nuevo y hacia esta tierra nueva caminamos los cristianos: hacia una tierra donde pueda acampar nuestro Dios. Queremos vivir en un mundo donde Dios pueda vivir entre nosotros, bendiciendo nuestro trabajo y nuestros esfuerzos. El mundo en el que vivimos ahora no nos gusta, porque no es un mundo gobernado por el amor de Dios, por un amor redentor, sino gobernado por un egoísmo humano que lleva a la desesperación y a la muerte a millones de personas inocentes. En este mundo nuestro, en esta tierra nuestra, no puede acampar nuestro Dios; caminemos hacia un cielo nuevo y hacia una tierra nueva que sí pueda ser morada de Dios, reino de Dios, como quería nuestro Señor, Pablo y Bernabé, dos grandes misioneros de la Iglesia primitiva, dos enviados de Dios para que vayan sembrando por vez primera la semilla del evangelio. Ahora vuelven a los mismos lugares por donde pasaron antes, confirmando en la fe a los cristianos... No era fácil perseverar en la fe entonces, ni hoy tampoco lo es. Nunca puede ser fácil creer y vivir según las exigencias últimas de la fe. Los apóstoles se hacen eco de las palabras del Señor. les perseguirán, les calumniarán, tendrán que negarse a ustedes mismos, tendrán de cargar con la cruz de cada día y caminar cuesta arriba.

En ese momento que recordamos bajo la luz de la Pascua, les dice Jesús a los suyos como ya le quedaba poco tiempo de estar con ellos. Sus palabras son, prácticamente, las últimas que les diría. Por eso tienen un relieve peculiar, una fuerza mayor. Hay como un cierto énfasis y solemnidad cuando les dice: Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amén unos a otros como yo los he amado. Son estas palabras el testamento espiritual de Jesucristo, la última recomendación que venía a resumir y a culminar todo cuanto les había dicho a lo largo de su vida pública.

Día de las Madres

Novena del Día de la Madre

El día Domingo, 8 de Mayo, es el Día de la Madre. El mejor regalo que podemos dar es el ofrecer Misa por nuestras madres, tanto vivas como fallecidas. En la parte de atrás de la iglesia están unas tarjetas para la Novena del Día de la Madre. Por favor, deposite el sobre con su donativo en la canasta de la colecta o pasen a la oficina parroquial a dejar su sobre. No olvide de anotar el nombre de la mamá en la tarjeta, para así recordarle a ella en las oraciones, (Novena).

Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity

We walked together in harmony in the house of God (Psalm 55:14)

The Cardinal McIntyre Fund Second Collection will be today, April 24th. Your contribution to this fund goes directly toward emergency needs for children, adults, and families in Los Angeles counties. Your contributions to this fund make you a sharer in our parishes' works of mercy, and in their rewards of grace. You are helping to serve "the neediest of those in need"-children, families and individuals throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles for whom no other resources exist.

Mass Intentions at Our Lady of Guadalupe

Mass intentions refer to the particular purpose for which a specific Mass is "offered." (Catholicculture.org)

This tradition is closely linked with the concept of "communion with the saints," that is, the Catholic teaching that all the faithful (including us here on earth, our brothers and sisters who are already in heaven, and those who are in Purgatory) form one community.¹ When we ask a priest to offer a Mass for a deceased loved one, we do so as an expression of our belief in the communion of saints, as part of our acknowledgment that our loved one, although deceased, is still a member of the community of the faithful. Because it is ultimately an expression of communal faith in the Lord and in His promise of eternal life, the tradition of offering Masses for those who have died often brings some measure of comfort to the loved ones they left behind. Masses are offered for many reasons: in thanksgiving to God, for someone who is sick, in remembrance of a loved one's birthday or anniversary, and perhaps most frequently, in remembrance of a loved one who has passed away. If you would like to schedule a Mass please call Jodi at the parish office or come by during business hours.

Jubilee Day for Youth

This Sunday's "Youth Jubilee" previews July's World Youth Day in Krakow. Its theme from Matthew 5:7, "Blessed are the merciful," echoes Pope Francis' warning that "the practice of mercy is waning in the wider culture." In countercultural witness, therefore, "the time has come," says Francis, "for the Church to take up the joyful call to mercy once more. It is time to return to the basics and to bear the weaknesses and struggles of our brothers and sisters." Jesus affirms the same in today's Gospel. "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another" (John 13:34). Francis concludes, "The Church's very credibility is seen in how she shows merciful and compassionate love." Jesus too asserts, "This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another" (John 13:35). Thus mercy "makes young" the Church, the world, and everyone. "Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope" (Misericordiae Vultus, 10).

Earth Day,

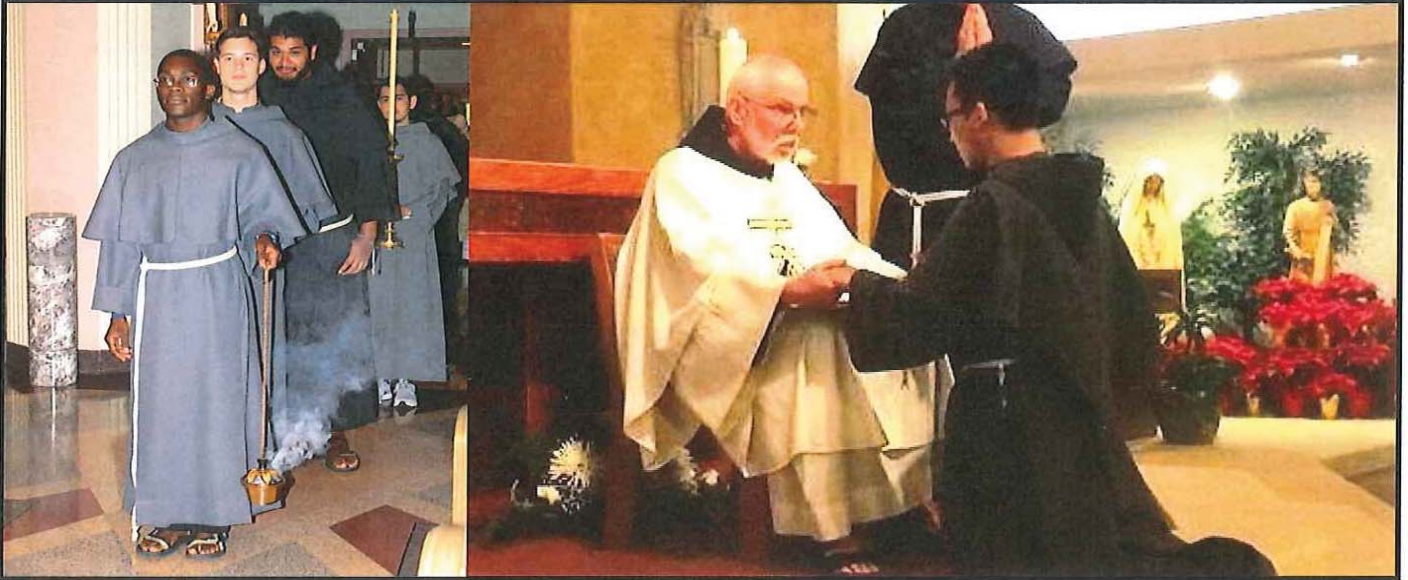

Earth Day was Friday, April 22. We should take this time to recommit ourselves to the caring and preserving all of God's Creation. May we always use God's creation, wisely. All Creation bears the imprint of Christ. Respecting God's Creation is basic to our Faith.

"I would like to ask all those who have positions of responsibility in economic, political and social life, and all men and women of goodwill: let us be 'protectors' of creation, protectors of God's plan inscribed in nature, protectors of one another and of the environment."

- Pope Francis, Inauguration, 3/19/13

ST. FRANCIS AND HIS CALL TO REBUILD THE CHURCH

St. Francis followed the will of God in his life, through prayer and rejecting the ways of this world, to find Perfect Joy, and help rebuild God's Church. Come and See more about Franciscan Life today, and journey with us as we learn about St. Francis from the Cross at San Damiano when Christ revealed his mission, to the founding of the Order, to the Stigmata at the end of his life indicating how closely he was united to the Crucified Christ. Come and See if Christ is calling you, to follow Him, as St. Francis did, and Franciscans do!
